CAPTAINS' REPORTS

Mixed Club – Nothing to report

Ladies' Club – Kathy Pringle

This season we had 72 members. 39 in the 18 hole division and 33 in the 9 hole division.
29 Ladies days this year including 7 shotgun starts.

Ladies followed Golf Canada's rating with the new tee boxes and played black tees on the front 9 with the silver tee on the short 17th and played gold tees on the back nine. The ladies club no longer has to purchase separate cards for handicap ratings since Ardmore Golf Course score cards follows the same rating as Golf Canada for handicap rating.

Ladies's Club now has representatives from both the 9 and 18 hole ladies on their handicap committee. Diana Wishlaw won the ladies club championship and a silver medal in the 1st Flight at the 55+ BC Summer Games in 2025.

Men's Club – Eric Van Rooyen

2025 saw 78 members – 10 new members joined this year

Shot gun starts were well received allowing for morning meetings and extra events such as Eagle Pot, Closest to the Keg, KP, Long Drive and Longest Putt.

Club Championship winner was Lindsay Funk with other flights were John Barry, Todd Allinger and Time Maloney. James Chestnut was the most improved golfer.

Most men's committee positions have been filled, looking for a member to lead the handicap committee and someone to administer the prize money.

Men's club passed a motion to raise the membership fee from $75 to $100 due to 5 hole in ones this season which added $1,800 in expenses.

NEW BUSINESS:

John Barry raised for information the charity initiatives the Men's club did this year raising money through the 50/50 draws they had. A gaming license was purchased from British Columbia Lottery Corporation for $10 and they had to state the charities on the application.
