Ardmore Ladies' Tuesday Club

CLUB CHAMPIONSHIP - GOLD

The Championship Cup was donated by the Ardmore Golf Club in 1939, and the Runner-up Plaque in 1982.

Rules of Play: This is an 18-hole medal play format competition. Players must have played five Tuesday morning Ladies Day games or other designated Ladies Division events. There is no qualifying round. Members are placed in flights on handicap factors at start of play. The eight players with the lowest factors play the Championship Flight. Remaining players are divided equally between Silver and Bronze Flights. All three flights will play a total of three consecutive 18-hole rounds using gross scores. In case of a tie for winner or runner-up, another full round is played, continuing to sudden death if required.

PAR COMPETITION

The trophy for this competition was donated by Mutual Auto Sales Corporation in 1939 and was originally used for the Ladies Eclectic competitions.

In 1950 it was changed to be used for the Par competitions, becoming the Par Cup.

Format: Each Par day, three players with the best scores will have their names listed on a chart. When five rounds have been completed, the listed players are eligible to compete in the Par Cup playoff. Ties must be broken by another 18-hole game. The winner is awarded the Par Cup and both winner and runner-up receives a cash prize.

MARGARET E. ROSE CUP

The Margaret E. Rose Memorial Cup was donated for 18-hole play in 1951 by Mr. H.A. Rose in memory of his wife, Margaret, who was a much-loved member of the Ardmore Ladies, preferring play for fun rather than serious competition.

When the Ladies Club separated into two divisions in 1991, the Cup was assigned to the nine-hole ladies. In its place the Valentine Rose Bowl was donated for 18-hole play by Mrs. Isobel Valentine in memory of her late husband, Len. For over 30 years, Len and Isobel were members of the Ardmore golf club and were honored as life members. Play for the Margaret Rose Cup was discontinued in 2006 for lack of nine-hole players but was reinstated in the 2014 season.

Rules of Play: An 18-hole medal play (stroke play) format. Players record 5 rounds of play, best three rounds are tabulated. Best net score wins. In case of a tie for winner or runner-up, another full round is played, continuing to sudden death if required

EMILY YOUNG AWARD

This award, presented to the Ladies Club in 2001 by Mrs. Emily Young, is for the member having the lowest net average in competitions played over the whole season.

The winner is determined by calculating the total number of individual rounds played in the designated competitions and averaging it among the number of players taking part.

This figure is used as the minimum number of rounds for a member to be eligible for the award. Individual averages are then determined with the lowest net being declared the winner.

2023 Winner
Donna Costin

2023 Runner-up
Carmen Piche
